

Can persons with underlying medical conditions take the vaccine?

Did you know.....

Persons who have eczema, asthma, history of severe allergic reactions to drugs, food and insect bites and even those with hypertension, high cholesterol and heart disease can take the vaccines.

Do check with your doctor or highlight any of your concerns during the registration process at the vaccination centre.

Don't wait to vaccinate!

