EA Alert: Call for Information for the Appointment of Programme Partners for the Provision of Career and Employment Services

The Singapore Workforce Development Agency (WDA), a statutory board of the Ministry of Manpower, seeks to enhance the employability and competitiveness of our workforce to meet the changing needs of Singapore's economy. As part of its services, WDA provides employment and training assistance to Singaporeans. WDA is looking at opportunities to collaborate with private employment agencies as intermediaries to enhance the assistance provided to Singaporean professionals, managers and executives (PMEs) who have been unemployed for an extended period of time. A call for information has been published on 22 September 2014, and more details will be provided at the briefing held on 29 September 2014, 4.30pm.
