

Last chance to attend Certificate of Employment Intermediaries (Abridged) course

Since 1 April 2011, the Certificate of Employment Agency (CEA) has been replaced by the Certificate of Employment Intermediaries (CEI) as the one of the prerequisites for EA personnel in Comprehensive Licence employment agencies.

As some EA personnel may have missed the earlier runs of CEI (Abridged) course, 12 new dates from now till 26 August have been added. The following categories of persons are eligible to take the CEI (Abridged) course:

- existing CEA holders;
- persons who have passed CEA (Module A); and
- persons who were previously required to attain CEA as they place work permit holders but were given exemption by the Ministry of Manpower.

Please note that those who fail to attend the abridged course will need to attend the full course to attain the CEI and pass the CEI test before they can be registered as an EA Personnel. More information on the course and registration can be found at the MOM website.
