

Event: MOM-SPF Counter-Terrorism Seminar for Private Transport Industry
GOH: Mr Ang Hin Kee, Deputy Chairman for Government Parliamentary Committee (Transport)
Date and time: 28 May 2018, 0800 hrs to 1300 hrs
Venue: IlluminITE Theatre, Block A, Level 2, ITE College Central

Time	Event
0830	Arrival of GOH
0835 – 0845	Opening address by GOH
0845 – 0915	The Threat of Terrorism and its implication to Singapore → by Ministry of Home Affairs About: Terror threats and security environment in the international stage, regional stage and local context
0915 - 0945	Security Enhancement Programme – Threat-Oriented Person Screening Integrated System → by Ministry of Home Affairs (Institute of Safety and Security Studies) About: Concept of the TOPSIS programme and how it can be customised and implemented in the private transport sector to enhance security.
0945 - 1015	How should you respond in an emergency? → by Singapore Police Force About: Dynamic lockdown procedures, evacuation, and contingency planning and response
1015 - 1040	Tea break (Exhibition)
1040 – 1100	Good Samaritans to Community First Responders → by Singapore Civil Defence Force About: Concept of community first response which involves learning the “triangle of life” skills and having the courage to step forward and help others.
1100 - 1120	Security is a Shared Responsibility → by Land Transport Authority About: How private bus operators/drivers and heavy vehicles drivers can help report suspicious items/persons
1120 - 1150	Day After Terror: Sustaining Resilience in Singapore and Workplace → by Ministry of Home Affairs (Home Team Behavioural Sciences Centre) About: Strategies to shore up national and societal cohesion in the aftermath of a crisis. Sustaining Singapore’s resilience after a terror attack.
1150 - 1220	Psychological First Aid → by Singapore Prisons Service (Psychological and Correctional Rehabilitation Division) About: Basic helping skills to support individual suffering from stress effects in the aftermath of an attack.
1220 - 1240	Be a Prepared Workplace through proper Risk Assessment → by Mr Steven Tan, Bok Seng Group About: Bok Seng Group sharing on incorporating SGSecure into their company’s culture through risk management