

FACTSHEET

SINGAPORE HUMAN CAPITAL SUMMIT - PEOPLE STRATEGIES FOR ASIA 22 – 24 October 2008, Shangri La Hotel, Singapore

Overview

Organised by the Ministry of Manpower (MOM) and the Singapore Workforce Development Agency (WDA), the inaugural people leadership conference “Singapore Human Capital Summit” will be held in Singapore from 22 – 24 October 2008 at the Shangri-la Hotel, Singapore.

Themed “People Strategies for Asia”, the Summit is a gathering of more than 600 global and regional business leaders, mainly CEOs and Chief HR Officers, who seek to advance people practices and human capital development in Asia and beyond.

Over two-and-a-half days, this first of its kind Summit in the region will showcase leading edge practices and opportunities in Asia that will enable leaders to leverage human resource excellence to achieve business success.

Programme Highlights

In plenary sessions at the Summit, global and regional CEOs will share their best practices and perspectives on strategic people practices in Asia and around the world. Participants will also benefit from learning about the latest research findings on Asia’s trends and practices in leadership development and talent management.

In addition, concurrent seminar sessions will create the platform for in-depth dialogues with Asian leaders in areas of leadership development, talent management, public service human capital and workforce trends and responses.

Event Partners

This Summit is a Singapore government-led initiative organized in partnership with INSEAD University, Singapore Management University (SMU) and Chartered Institute of Personnel Development (CIPD), UK; in strategic alliance with the Association Banks of Singapore, Economic Development Board, Institute of Banking and Finance, International Enterprise Singapore, InfoComm and Development Authority of Singapore, Monetary Authority of Singapore, Media Development Authority of Singapore, Public Service Division, Singapore Tourism Board, National Trade Unions Congress, Singapore Business Federation and Singapore National Employers’ Federation.

Price

The full Summit pass is priced at S$2,800 per person. This includes access to the full two-and-a-half-day programme, including the opening ceremony, plenary sessions, seminar sessions, luncheons and a gala dinner.

For any enquiries, please email or contact our Event Secretariat at:
secretariat@singaporehcs Summit.com
Tel: +65 6513 8798
Operating hours: 1000 – 1800hr (GMT +8hrs) Monday to Friday
www.singaporehcs Summit.com

Key Speakers

Harish Manwani
President, Asia, Africa, Central and Eastern Europe, Unilever CNBC Asia Business Leader of the Year 2008

With the Unilever group for 31 years, Mr Manwani is responsible for Unilever's business operations in Asia, Africa, Middle East, Eastern and Central Europe (including Russia). His leadership has been instrumental in building a strong core of local management teams across 43 operating companies under the Unilever umbrella.

Yasuchika Hasegawa
President, Takeda Pharmaceutical Company Limited

After graduating from Waseda University, Tokyo, Mr Hasegawa joined Takeda Chemical Industries in 1970. He was appointed to be the President of TAP Pharmaceuticals, Chicago, in 1993 and was elected as a member of the Board of Takeda Pharmaceutical Company Ltd. (Takeda) in 1999. He became the President of Takeda in 2003. Founded in 1781, Takeda is Japan's largest pharmaceutical company and has just reported its highest net profit of US $3.4 billion.

Kan Trakulhoon
President and CEO,
Siam Cement Group (SCG)
Thailand Top 100 HR Award 2007
(Human Resources Institute, Thammasart University)

Since joining SCG in 1977, Mr Trakulhoon has held several management positions in the company's key strategic business units including Petrochemicals, Cement and Ceramics. SCG is Thailand's first cement manufacturer and one of the most recognised industrial conglomerates today.

S Ramadorai
CEO and Managing Director,
Tata Consultancy Services, India
6th Most Influential IT Leader
in the World
(Computer Business Review 2006)

Under Mr Ramadorai's watch, Tata Consultancy Services doubled its revenue every two years, and became the first Indian IT consultancy services company to break the $1 billion revenue barrier. His company has one of the lowest attrition figures in the IT industry for the third consecutive year, a well-designed job rotation policy, as well as a world-class talent management program.

Ho Kwon Ping
Executive Chairman,
Banyan Tree Group
CEO of the Year
(Singapore Corporate Awards 2008)
Hotelier of the Year
(Stylemaker Awards HK, 2008)

A visionary business leader, Mr Ho or KP as he is known, understands the true value of corporate social responsibility as a driver of the company's business success and progressive HR policies. Founded in 1994, Banyan Tree aims to leave its green footprint in every continent through over 50 new projects and the united employee force of over 45 nationalities.

Liew Mun Leong
President and CEO, CapitaLand Group
Outstanding CEO of the Year
(Singapore Business Awards 2006)

Educated in Singapore, Mr Liew has over 30 years of experience in construction and real estate in the region. His company was awarded the Most Admired ASEAN Enterprise Award for Employment by the ASEAN Business Awards in 2007, and believes in "building for people to build people" by attracting and developing quality human capital.

Professor Dave Ulrich
Partner and Co-founder of RBL Group;
Professor of Ross School of Business,
University of Michigan
Most Influential Person in HR
(HR Magazine 2006)

Professor Ulrich studies how organisations build capabilities of speed, learning, collaboration, accountability, talent and leadership through leveraging human capital. He has helped generate multiple award winning databases that assess alignment between strategies, human resource practices and HR competencies.