

Annex A

Photo of the collapsed tower crane and its base

Notes:

- The labelled items 1 to 4 are the four anchors for the base of the crane.
- The tower crane involved is a saddle-jib type (or commonly known as a "hammer-head") with a mast height of 37m, boom length of 60m, and having a maximum lifting capacity of 12 tons.