Porridge Distribution and Congregational Prayers

On 1 April 2023, 1000 servings of porridge and 100 briyanis were provided by An-Nur Mosque and An-Nahdhah Mosque to our migrant brothers at North Coast Lodge. After breaking fast together, our MWs also participated in a congregational prayer organised by the mosque.

Excursion to Gardens by the Bay

Jointly organised by The Salvation Army and Barker Road Methodist Church, our migrant brothers were treated to an exciting outing to Gardens by the Bay where they had the opportunity to visit the various attractions within! The migrant brothers also enjoyed a delicious dinner at the end of the outing.

Migrant Worker Health Carnival

Our migrant brothers enjoyed a fun and educational day out at Kranji Recreation Centre where they participated in a health carnival organised by MyBrotherSG.

Besides undergoing a basic health screening, participants also played educational games to learn more about the dangers of common diseases.

Scan the QR code here to find out more about the various physical and online activities you can take part in!
