

PLACE AND TRAIN PROGRAMMES FACTSHEET

(A) What are Place-and-Train Programmes?

1. Place and Train (PnT) programmes provide training and salary support to help rank-and-file (RnF) workers reskill to take on new jobs in different sectors. Eligible applicants will be hired by participating employers before undergoing training to take on new job roles. The duration of the PnT programme will depend on the job and training requirements.

2. To encourage employers to hire and reskill unemployed Singapore Citizens (SCs) who have been unemployed for 6 months or more, enhanced salary support will be provided for them with effect from 1 April 2018 (see Table 1).

Table 1: Funding Rates for PnT Programme

Funding to Employers by WSG	Support Rate
Course Fee Funding	Up to 90% of course fees
Salary Support	Up to 70% of monthly salary, pay-out capped at $2,000 per month*
[New] Salary Support for LTU¹ (For SCs Only)	Up to 90% of monthly salary, pay-out capped at $3,000 per month[#]

* Funding caps may apply

Effective 1 April 2018, funding caps may apply
