

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY BULLETIN

News bulletin by the Ministry of Manpower for employment agencies.

Issue 9 | 24 June 2011

FINAL REMINDER: From 1 July 2011 only registered employment agency personnel will be allowed to perform employment agency work

Employment agencies have less than five working days to register its personnel who are performing employment agency work. Existing employment agency personnel who are not registered by deadline will need to be certified before they could register as employment agency personnel and may have their Work Permit Online (WPOL) and Employment Pass Online (EPOL) accounts suspended.

Any person who is not registered with the Ministry of Manpower but is found to be doing EA work after 30 June 2011 would have committed an offence and may be liable for prosecution.

Those who have successfully registered as EA personnel must carry a registration card issued by their employment agency. They can only work for and be registered under one employment agency at any point in time.

Employers will be able to make use of the EA directory

[<http://www.mom.gov.sg/eirectory>] to verify the registration status of employment agency personnel.

For more information, visit www.mom.gov.sg/ea