Tripartite Guidelines on Issuance of Itemised Payslips

Introduction

Providing itemised payslips is a good employment practice. It raises employees' awareness of their salary components and provides proper documentation which helps to facilitate the resolution of any salary dispute.

This set of Guidelines seeks to guide employers, in particular the SMEs, in issuing itemised payslips and to institute good HR practices. SMEs that need further assistance can approach the Singapore National Employers Federation (SNEF) or the Business Advisors at the SME Centres listed at pages 6 and 7.

Who should receive a payslip?

Employers should issue itemised payslips to all their employees.

When should a payslip be given?

Employers should issue itemised payslips at least once a month.

For a salary period ending in a particular month, employers should issue payslips to their employees within 7 days after the last day of that month. For example, for payment for work done in January, employers should issue the payslip by 7th February.

Where there are more than one salary period within that month, employers could consolidate all the salary payment details in that calendar month into a single payslip. For example, if the workers are paid fortnightly, employers could issue a single payslip containing details of payment for the two salary periods. They could also choose to issue payslips as and when they pay the workers, which should be at least once a month.

Where an employee is dismissed or has his contract of service terminated, employers should issue the payslip together with the payment of any outstanding salary or dismissal/termination payment, and the payslip should itemise such payments.

What form can the payslip take?

Employers could issue the payslip in hard and/or soft copies, as long as it contains the relevant information outlined in the next page. Employers are also encouraged to get employees to acknowledge that they have received their payslips.

What should be in a payslip?

Payslips should contain the items on the next page. Employers need not include items that are not relevant to the employee.

What should be in a payslip?

- 1 Name of employer
- 2 Name of employee
- 3 Date(s) of payment
- 4 Mode of payment (cash/cheque/bank deposit)
- 5 Start and end dates of each salary period within the month
- 6 Basic salary for each salary period
- 7 Allowances paid for each salary period such as:
 - All fixed allowances (e.g. transport)
 - All ad-hoc allowances (e.g. one off uniform allowance)
- 8 Start and end dates of each overtime payment period within the month
- 9 Overtime hours worked
- 10 Overtime pay for each overtime payment period
- 11 Any other additional payment for each salary period such as:
 - Bonuses
 - Rest day pay
 - Public holiday pay
- 12 Actual deductions made for each salary period such as:
 - All fixed deductions (e.g. employee's CPF contribution)
 - All ad-hoc deductions (e.g. deductions for damage to or loss of goods)
- 13 Net salary paid in the month
- 14 Employer's CPF contribution

Where to seek further assistance

Employers who need further assistance may approach SNEF at the following hotline: (65) 6327 9297. They may also approach the Business Advisors at any of the SME Centres on the next page.
